

SURVIVAL GUIDE FOR EDUCATORS

Just don't survive, thrive with our on demand Share My Lesson webinar.

THRIVE: DON'T JUST SURVIVE

No matter how great the preparation program is, the minute you become a “real teacher” lots of theory goes out the window in favor of “real life” practical advice that helps you navigate the complexities of being a new teacher.

Our free 2023 Share My Lesson webinar will help new teachers and their mentors consider important topics like institutional knowledge, handling conflict, social media, unions, and how to keep all the balls in the air!

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT CREDIT

Available for one-hour of PD credit. A certificate of completion will be available for download at the end of your session that you can submit for your school's or district's approval.

SCAN QR CODE TO VIEW RECORDING WEBINAR AND TO DOWNLOAD RESOURCES

Created and maintained by the American Federation of Teachers, Share My Lesson is a community of teachers, paraprofessionals and school-related personnel, specialized instructional support personnel, higher education faculty, and parents and caregivers who contribute content, collaborate, and stay up to date on the issues that matter to students and educators everywhere.

AMBER CHANDLER

SML PARTNER

Amber Chandler is a National Board Certified middle school ELA teacher in Hamburg, New York with a Master's Degree in Literature, as well as a School Building Leader certification. She is the 2018 Association for Middle Level Educators' "Educator of the Year."

Amber was chosen from a nationwide search as one of a handful of panelist for Fordham's "Evaluating the Content and Quality of Next Generation Assessments" to evaluate how state assessments compare in their ability to assess Common Core Standards. She's also served as a School Review Team member, offering her observations and expertise, particularly in the area of Project Based Learning.

Amber is an active AFT member as a ShareMyLesson Ambassador and participant in the Resource and Materials Development at the Summer Educators Academy. Amber also is a featured contributor for the AFT blog, "Classroom Voices." She serves as the President for her local, Frontier Central Teachers Association.